

1. Use the elevation data to construct a topographic map of contour interval of 20m. Follow the rules of contour lines and make your map as realistic as possible.
2. Use elevation data and your topo lines to construct a profile along A-A'.
3. Show Drainage direction of stream.